JUICES FOR LIVING HEALTHY

MAJOR ANTIOXIDANT JUICE

[Makes 1 servings]

One of the first things I like to do each morning is juice, so I can get fresh nutrients and live enzymes into my body first thing. Here is one of my favorite recipes, packed with beta-carotene and antioxidants to ward off bugs and colds.

1 grapefruit
2 oranges

1 inch ginger root
3 carrots

To juice your grapefruit and oranges, you can try one of 2

Methods:

HIGH SPEED JUICER: Peel your citrus. Then break them up into segments to fit into your juicer.

MANUAL CITRUS JUICER: Slice your citrus in half between the stem and the flowering ends. Then juice manually.

Wash and peel your ginger. You can easily peel ginger using the edges of a teaspoon. Scrape the edges off until the ginger flesh shows. Rinse the ginger and discard the skin.

Scrub your carrots well to remove any debris. Juice it using a high speed juicer. Next add your peeled ginger. Add your citrus juice to your carrot and ginger juice. Mix thoroughly and enjoy.

DETOXIFYING LEMONADE

[Makes 2 servings]

This 'lemonade' reduces bloating, boosts weight-loss, helps clear your complexion, and is an excellent overall detoxifying juice.

2 liters water

1 medium cucumber, peeled and thinly sliced

1 lemon, thinly sliced

1 teaspoon freshly grated ginger
10-12 spearmint leaves

Add 2 liters of water to a container. Add your peeled cucumber slices, sliced lemon, freshly grated ginger, and spearmint leaves. Steep overnight in the fridge and enjoy. The taste is so refreshing.

GLOWING GREEN JUICE

[Makes 1 servings]

This can be blended as a smoothie as well.

1 1/2 cups coconut water

1 apple, cored and chopped

1 pear, cored and chopped

1/3 bunch parsley (stems okay)

1 head romaine lettuce, chopped

1 handful spinach

3 stalks celery, chopped

1/2 lemon

To make a juice, add your coconut water to a large container. Juice the remaining ingredients using a high speed juicer. Mix the juice with the coconut water and enjoy.

To make a smoothie, add your coconut water to a blender container. Add the apple and pear. Blend on high until the apple and pear are liquid. Add the parsley, romaine lettuce, spinach, and celery. Blend on high until smooth. Manually squeeze the lemon juice into the smoothie and blend on low so the lemon juice is fully incorporated into the smoothie. Serve and enjoy.
